

2009 Lobo Scholars Academy
The Thirteenth Annual Academy for Incoming Juniors!

June 8-12, 2009,
At Longview High School's Career and Technology Center

All Longview High School 2009-2010 incoming juniors are invited to attend the thirteenth annual Lobo Scholars Academy. Longview High School will mail information and registration forms to all 2009-2010 juniors during the week of May 11.

This week of intense training will help juniors score their very best on the PSAT (Preliminary Scholarship Achievement Test) in October 2009 when they take the PSAT at Longview High School. Kay Ray, Shirley Williams and Larry Cunningham will teach the classes. All three teachers have received extensive training in the skills needed for success on the PSAT. Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Williams have taught the academy since its inception in 1996.

Monday through Thursday, June 8-11, students will learn vocabulary and verbal, writing and math skills needed for this important test as well as test-taking strategies that are designed specifically for the PSAT. By understanding what academic skills are needed for this very specific test and learning how it is scored, students will earn a better score.

In October 2009, juniors will begin National Merit Scholar competition by taking the PSAT, a test that is given once only in October. Students will register for and take the test at Longview High School during the school day.

From this test, LHS students can be named National Merit Scholars, Commended Scholars, and National Achievement Scholars during their senior year. This recognition will earn students scholarships and recognition from colleges and universities. The merit scholars of the Class of 2011 are in the sophomore class today. Learn this summer how you can be one of them.

The road to college and financial assistance begins this summer and in October 2009 with the PSAT. Register for this fun-filled, fast-paced, skills based course and earn your best score on the PSAT.

Classes will meet June 8-11 from 8:30 to 3:30 with lunch provided each day from students' favorite restaurants—Pizza King, Whataburger, and Chick-fill-A. On Friday, students will take a released PSAT and score it to determine their success. No lunch will be provided on Friday since class will be over by 1:00 PM.

Cost for the class is $60.00 which includes all student materials.

Registration deadline is Monday, June 1.
